

Fourth Reformed Church

To celebrate and worship
our Lord and King

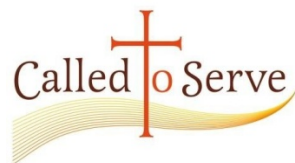

26 November 2017

Welcome! Thanks for joining us! If you're new, please fill out a connect card (found in the bench rack), and drop it in the offering plate when it's passed, or give it to one of the people standing by the doors at the end of the service.

A key part of our mission as disciples is the call to serve. Today we are going to conclude our series of sermons on how women and men are called to serve together in the body of Christ.

Praise and Prayer

Eleanor DeFouw was received into the arms of Jesus last Saturday. Eleanor's life will be celebrated on Friday, December 1 at 12 Noon at the Van Strien Chapel on Plainfield. We give thanks for Eleanor's life and all that she meant to us here at Fourth. She will be missed. Pray for Skip and Sue and family as they rejoice her struggle is over, but also mourn the loss of a dear mother and grandma.

Tom Boehm is recovering from a much needed gall bladder surgery. We give thanks he was able to have it taken out on Monday and is doing well.

Gary, Rachel & Xavi de Leon leave tomorrow for Brazil. Pray Xavi travels well and for a safe trip. Pray their meetings go well as they renew their commitment with their mission and that they would have a clear sense of God's calling on their lives in Guatemala. Also pray for the health and protection for Rachel and their unborn baby. Thank you for your prayers and financial support for them this month.

"Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave - just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

- Matthew 20:26-28
