

Fourth Reformed Church

To celebrate and worship
our Lord and King

4 October 2020

Welcome! If you are visiting this morning, we're glad to have you with us today. Due to COVID, we are asking that everyone sits only in the pews with cushions, and does their best to maintain social distancing in the rows. As well, we're asking everyone to wear their masks throughout the service, if you are able. We're eager to worship the Lord, but we want to do so wisely!

Suffering. It is something we all experience at some point. But what does it mean for Jesus to suffer? This morning we look at the fourth line of the Apostle's Creed to see how Jesus suffered, and why it's important that Pilate is mentioned with that suffering.

Announcements

Communion

This morning we have the privilege of celebrating the Lord's Supper together. As you came in this morning, you hopefully saw the table with the pre-packaged cups and wafers. Please hang on to this until we celebrate communion later in the service. Throughout this morning's worship, as we approach the table together, let us rejoice in the sacrificial gift of Jesus that has paid the penalty for our sin.

Missionaries of the Month – The DeLeon Family

Thank you Fourth family for your commitment to our family and ministry with prayer and support! We are looking forward to when this quarantine ends and you are able to send a team down here! Hopefully early next year! As for the pandemic in Guatemala, we've reached 100,000 cases this week but numbers are slowly lowering! Our president has COVID, but thankfully he's stable! There are still many restrictions in place (curfew, state border limits, schools are permanently closed, no church meetings allowed, no gatherings, etc). Despite all this we are still very active in ministry and moving forward with plans for re-opening early next year. Offerings for the DeLeon's can be given any time during the month of October.

Consistory Nominations

Today is the deadline for submitting elder and deacon nomination ballots. Please place your ballot in the box on the sign up table, or fill out the online ballot by going to the link provided in the 4th Eblast that was sent out this past week.
